

You won't ever meet anyone like her again!
Thursday April 30, 2009 6:30 p.m.

You are invited to a private fundraising dinner for Ibtisam Mahameed, a religious Palestinian Israeli Muslim woman who is widely applauded in Israel for her fearless interfaith peace work and for Women Reborn, her groundbreaking program to empower poor Muslim women.

Ibtisam will be in the U.S. to receive a special award and blessing from His Holiness the Dalai Lama as an Unsung Hero of Compassion.

Ibtisam will show photos and speak about her life, her work, her trauma-healing center, and her interspiritual approach to peacebuilding. The evening will provide a window into work that is generating deep and lasting change inside Israel.

Internationally recognized Israeli Jewish peace activist Elana Rozenman describes Ibtisam as "a true and pure peace-builder – she is absolutely one of the most authentic and effective people working here. She is also a charming and delightful person who captivates everyone she meets."

Please join us for this unique evening

Thursday April 30, 2009
6:30 p.m. halal dinner at the home of
Patti Gorman and Richard Knutson
1824 E. McGraw St.
Seattle WA 98112

Space is limited! Please RSVP to
Jelilah Judith Allen 206 329 5576 domesticwarrior@gmail.com

Please support Ibtisam's work by donating as generously as you can. All contributions should be directed to the not-for-profit Center for Religious Tolerance, Ibtisam's major sponsoring agency (<http://www.centerforreligioustolerance.org>). More information on CRT will be available at the dinner. All donated funds will go directly to support Ibtisam's projects and are fully tax-deductible.