

THE TRUTH ABOUT MUSLIM WOMEN

*What do we really know? How much is Islam and how much is cultural? Are there generational attitudes? Has technology made it better or worse for Muslim women? It's way past time we knew.
Come and speak with journalist, editor, teacher and writer.*

SAMAR DAHMASH-JARRAH

Samar is a Kuwait-born Palestinian-American who has traveled extensively throughout North America, Europe and the Middle East. She has lived in Jordan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, Egypt and The U.S. She's been a contributor to CNN World Report and reporter for Jordan Television. She presently teaches Geo-Politics of the Middle East at the Honors College at USF Tampa and co-hosts "True Talk" every Friday on WMNF-FM. She is the author of "Arab Voices Speak to American Hearts"

*3:00 – 5:00 PM Sunday
October 16, 2011*

At Davis Hall on Browning Street...easy to find and easy to park – no steps.

Just west of Beneva and next to the Center of Light (formerly Shrine of the Master).

Presented by the Women's Interfaith Network (WIN)

Bring your female friends, daughters, grand-daughters